

2016 activities

June 2016:

- Construction of access road for trucks destined for Nepali Children home.
- Acquire stones for the foundation of Nepali Children home (in total 8 truck loads).
- Stones are being carved from rocks in the mountains.
- Choice of house design.

May 2016:

- Tree's were cut for making doors en windows-frame's.
- Ginger harvested so the land is now available for the building of Nepali Children home.
- A design for the Nepali Children home is created by an architect.
- Acquired subsidy for building home. (Some $2000,00 is available from the Nepal government for people hit by the earthquake and who are now rebuilding a quake resistant house). Nepali Children home is build on the land owned by the parent of Ram Prasad Sedhain.

April 2016:

- Architect contacted for making designs of the house.
- Manufacturer contacted for delivery of prefab building materials.

March 2016:

Progression in building the Nepali Children home.

- Acquired and installed watertank (1 m³) .
- Search for a new water source up on the mountain.

January / February 2016:

Jolanda Bijl started as an intern at the local school in Madanpur:

- In order to get acquainted with the Nepal school system.
- Get to know the children en people.
- Learn the Nepali language
- Promote Nepali Children foundation